

Hiring and Job Posting

Section 1. The University will give consideration to student employees who have worked in similar positions (whether or not the positions are compensated positions) when making hiring decisions. Departments are encouraged not to require a cover letter for applicants.

. The University shall post employee pay rates on a designated University website.